

USA Curling

Level I Instructor—Madison CC

Saturday, January 15, 2011

Madison Curling Club
4802 Marsh Road, McFarland, WI 53558

Who should attend this clinic:

- curlers interested in helping their club introduce curling at novice events such as open house, Learn to Curl and corporate sessions.
- curlers interested in developing as intermediate to advanced instructors and participating in USA Curling Instruction regionally or nationally.
- curlers planning to become certified USA Curling coaches

Post Olympic Training

Develop your in-house training programs, instructors and coaches.

Course Conductor: Sandra McMakin Level III Instructor

12:30 p.m.—On-site registration

1:00 p.m.—Course starts and goes until approximately 7:30 p.m.

There will be on ice activities so please dress appropriately and bring your curling gear.

USA Curling Level I Instructor:

Level I Instructors are trained to work primarily within their own clubs helping beginners learn the game and novices to improve basic skills. Become an instructor—learn more about curling while improving your own game.

Cost: $20.00 for MCC members

$30.00 for nonmembers

Includes USA Curling fees and materials

(Optional dinner available after the course.)

Site Coordinator Joel Dietz joeldietz@gmail.com

To register, complete and submit registration form.

Deadline for registration:
Jan. 10, 2011

Contact Sandra McMakin for more information.

s.mcmakin@comcast.net
(240) 672-6162

[USA Curling
Training](#)

Sponsored by Madison Curling Foundation

The Madison Curling Foundation is the fund raising and charitable arm of the Madison Curling Club with a mission to support and promote curling.

Link to directions:

Madison Curling Club

